IELTS Speaking Part One HomeworkWrite as many different ways of answering Write as many different ways of answering each question as you can into each gap (making sure of course that each answer is true about you!)

Examiner: Hi, come in please. Take a seat. Can I see your ID?
You:
Examiner: Thank you. My name's John and I am your examiner today. Can I check how to pronounce your name?
You:
Examiner: First I'd like to ask you some questions about yourself. Is that okay?
You:
Examiner: First of all, let's talk about your hometown. Are you from Seoul?
You:Examiner: Would you say your hometown is a good place to live in?
You:Examiner: Would you like to retire there?
You:
Examiner: Why/ why not?
You:
Examiner: Okay. Let's move on and talk about your work and studies. Are you working or are you a student?
You:
Examiner: Do you enjoy that subject/ job?
You:
Examiner: Why/ why not?
You:Examiner: What would you like to do in the future?
Examiner: What would you like to do in the future?
You:
Examiner: Okay, thank you. Now I'm going to ask you to speak for one or two minutes Rewrite the dialogue below so that the same questions are asked but using different words and with your answers also using different words. You can also give different information in your answers if you like, as long as the answer is still true.
